Celebrating 50 Years of Carlisle Events at the Carlisle Chrysler Nationals 2024

Originally advertised as Mopars at Carlisle, the name was changed out of respect for Chrysler Corporation's car and parts divisions. The first event was held August 16-18, 1991, welcoming Dodge, Plymouth, Chrysler, Imperial, DeSoto, Jeep, AMC, Eagle and more. It included drag racing and a 1969 Dodge Coronet R/T Hemi was given away. The event moved to July in 1993.

About the Carlisle Chrysler Nationals

- Beginning in the early 2000s, Dodge brought various displays and activities including test drives, Hellcat Thrill Rides, and more.
- Racing teams, the Ramchargers and Golden Commandos, have been attending for nearly ten years
- A large number of legendary racecar drivers and corporate leaders have attended, including Richard Petty of NASCAR fame
- We've welcomed a number of celebrities from TV to Cinema including nine cast members of the Dukes of Hazzard, two from American Graffiti, and four from Christine
- The Plymouth Fury was made famous in the movie Christine so in 2008 we organized a special drive-in showing with several Furys front and center
- There have been at least two marriage proposals and three weddings

TENT ON ROWS 1B/1C

More than 20 years ago, an enthusiast named Mel Major created the iconic Mopar Survivors Display at the Carlisle Chrysler Nationals. Sadly, we lost Mel a few years ago, but his legacy AND the display live on by way of his sons Gregg and Ken. Celebrate Mel and a variety of amazing rides that have stood the test of time! Pictured are vehicles new to the display and listed are returning participants. These vehicles are original, or very close to it; making it a very unique part of this weekend's event!
