Celebrating 50 Years of Carlisle Events at the Carlisle GM Nationals 2024

The GM show was added to the schedule in June of 2001 and it was presented by Pep Boys for its first two years. General Motors provided a display of more than two dozen concept cars and trucks, race and pace cars, and rare antiques. Attendees had the opportunity to meet Jon Moss, Manager of General Motors Special Vehicles Group, and saw the world debut of the 2002 35th Anniversary Camaro.

About the Carlisle GM Nationals

- A special display in 2003 was assembled to celebrate 100 years of Buick.
- From 2003-2004 high school students from Dauphin County Technical School were guided by their teachers through a frame-off restoration of 1967 Pontiac GTO.
- National Parts Depot (NPD) has been the official sponsor of the showfield since 2005.
- The first Camaro ever produced was on display in 2017 as part of the 50 Years of Camaro and Firebird Celebration.
- In 2019 the Northeast Ohio Dukes jumped a Bandit Trans Am in tribute to actor Burt Reynolds and the movie "Smokey and the Bandit"
- Previously a stand-alone fundraising event for the Chip Miller Amyloidosis Foundation, Corvettes for Chip became integrated into the GM show in 2021.
